8. Proposed candidates

Once the candidates have been assessed, the commission will present the rector with a proposal listing all the candidates that have passed the assessment in order of preference. This proposal will also list the reasons why each candidate has been accepted and will be binding. The commission may also propose that the post remains unfilled.

Once the rector has seen the proposal, he/she will pass a resolution appointing a candidate for each post in the order proposed by the commission. This resolution will be published on the Human Resources Service's notice board and on the URV's website.

9. Formalizing the Contract

- 1) Should the candidate renounce the post or not sign the contract, the rector will appoint the next candidate in order of preference from the previously published list of candidates.
- 2) If the candidate is from a non-European Union country, he/she must comply with the necessary legal requirements in order to be contracted and registered with the Social Security System.
- 3) Under no circumstances may the candidate start work before he/she is registered with the Social Security System.

10. Complaints procedure

The interested parties can lodge an administrative appeal against this competition and its conditions with the Administrative Court in Tarragona within two months, counting from the day after the competition has been published. Prior to this administrative appeal, an appeal for reversal can also be made to the rector within one month of the day after the competition has been published.

Likewise, the interested parties can lodge an appeal with the rector of the URV against the administrative acts that may result from the actions of the commission. This appeal may be lodged within one month of the notification or publication of these acts. If no response has been given after three months, the appeal may be understood to have been dismissed by the university, which is not required to issue any specific resolution relating to the appeal. In this case, an administrative appeal can be lodged with the Administrative Court in Tarragona within six months from the day that the appeal to the rector is understood to have been dismissed. If a resolution is issued regarding the appeal lodged with the rector, the period for lodging an administrative appeal will be two months from the day that this resolution is issued.

Likewise, the interested parties may lodge any other appeal they deem appropriate for the defence of their interests.
